From the Desk of the President:
Expectations

"Expectations" is the word of the year 2025 for gun rights activists like us. Weighing our expectations versus what is actually likely to happen this year is what I'm going to discuss for you today.

Two blog pieces ago, I went into the elections and their impact. I showed hope for Attorney General Dave Sunday as a win for pro-gun citizens, but now, the jury is out. I have to say that because, though he campaigned as a pro-2A candidate, he just filed a petition to overturn a federal court ruling that allowed 18 to 20-year-olds to carry firearms in Pennsylvania. This case is known as Lara v. Paris. That means he just attacked the pro-2A ruling issued by the court. As a veteran, he should know better.

THANK YOU to all of our GAOS
Volunteers!

Earlier this month, FOAC-ILLEA was on the ground at the Great American Outdoor Show in Harrisburg, PA. We made connections with those in the industry and talked with many Pennsylvania residents who were interested in defending their right to keep and bear arms.

Our presence would not have been possible without these amazing and dedicated volunteers: Ruth Baker, Dale Brackin, Steve Cady, Rick and Linda Erb, Will Hoffert, Dan and Lizzie Jackovich, Stephen LaSpina, Klint Macro, Jim Stoker, and Lisha Tichenor. We are truly grateful, and say to each of them:

THANK YOU!
