From the Desk of the President:
Townships and Fiefdoms

More and more small fiefdoms are violating the state preemption law, but it's not always out of malice. Sometimes it's done out of a simple lack of knowledge.

Recently, I was contacted via Facebook messenger by several Pennsylvania residents about a small municipality in Beaver County proposing a zoning ordinance that was in clear violation of the state's preemption law. Multiple residents of South Beaver Township reached out asking for assistance with a newly proposed ordinance that had been recently posted on their website. And so, my journey began...

From the Desk of the VP: The birds, the bees, rifles, pistols, and shotguns

The single most “life changing” event I have experienced to date was the birth of my son. Any parent will likely echo a similar sentiment. Our children are a chance to better the world, carry on family traditions, and leave a legacy for generations to follow. We protect, nurture, mentor, and guide them to be better versions of ourselves.

We teach our kids how to feed themselves, care for themselves, read, write, think critically, honor elders, respect the flag, worship God, stand up for themselves, be kind, patient, forgiving, enterprising, self-sufficient, creative, and free thinking.

When is the right time to teach our kids about the 2nd Amendment?
